IAS Results

Since the IAS exams are held in phases and you proceed to the next phase only after clearing the first of the previous exam, there are 3 results that come out before you are chosen. The first results declared are of the prelims. Then come the results for your mains written paper and then you get the final results that are a combination of the written as well as the interview test.

Prelims Results 2013

More than 10 lakh candidates appeared for the IAS exam and about 10,000 have qualified for the Mains Exam to be held from December 1, 2013. With eight compulsory papers and one optional subject the Mains examination process will be completed within five days, four days for compulsory papers and one day for two papers of the optional subject. The Personality test or interviews will be held next year in May 2014. Last year, the cut-off point was 209 and this year it is likely to go up to 220 for general candidates.

The expected cut-off marks this year maybe as follows:

General -220, OBC-200, ST-185, SC-186, PH1-160, PH2-164, PH3-111
